GANDHI ASHRAM

The Gandhi Ashram was established by Mahatma Gandhi on a quiet stretch of the Sabarmati River in 1917. During the time he spent here, Mahatma Gandhi was the center of India's freedom movement. It was from here, in 1920, that the Mahatma began his famous "Dandi March" to the sea to protest against the Salt Tax imposed by the British. Over the years, the Ashram became home to the ideology that set India free. It aided countless other nations and people in their own battles against oppressive forces. "Yashodhara Kunj", the simple cottage where he lived, is still a national memorial.
